FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

46th ANNUAL ANTIQUE AND CLASSIC CAR SHOW A ZOOMING SUCCESS

WHITCHURCH-STOUFFVILLE, ON –Car enthusiasts from all over geared up to celebrate the 46th Annual Antique and Classic Car Show at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum and Community Centre on Sunday, August 11th.

Just under 2000 guests roamed the museum grounds visiting over 380 antique and classic cars on display.

"Each year the car show gets better and better" said Stephanie Foley, Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum Curator. "Perfect summer weather, lots of great cars and a crowd of spectators. We couldn't have asked for a better day! Of course, none of this was possible without our amazing staff and volunteers."

The yearly event had over 50 volunteers assisting the event to run smoothly.

The car show had lots to offer the whole family including helping to hand crank ice cream, options to take a look at the museum's new exhibit 'Archaeology Alive!', demonstrations in the historic buildings, a Scavenger Hunt with prizes, balloon animals, face painting and much more. Food trucks were on site to feed the crowds and our volunteers provided sandwiches and delicious pie in the Tea Garden in the Main Building.

The winners of car exhibitors were:
