TOWN PREPARES FOR OCTOBER 22 MUNICIPAL ELECTION Voter Engagement launches at Strawberry Festival

WHITCHURCH-STOUFFVILLE, ON – The Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville is gearing up for an exciting municipal election by starting to promote voter engagement at this year’s Strawberry Festival. Town voters will be able to have their say October 22 for the offices of:

- Mayor;
- Ward Councillors;
- Regional Chair; and
- School Board Trustees.

It is important for residents to be able to vote. Check and make sure you are on the municipal voters’ list by visiting voterlookup.ca or meet our friendly staff at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Election Information Booth at the 2018 Strawberry Festival this Canada Day weekend. The booth will be located in Memorial Park in downtown Stouffville Saturday and Sunday. Come by, ask questions, have your picture taken for Instagram and receive free prizes.

Visit elections.townofws.ca for more information about the election, including candidate and voter information, volunteering and voting locations. You may also contact the Clerk’s Department at elections@townofws.ca or (905) 640-1910.
