FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TOWN NAMES NEW CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER Roman Martiuk brings experience, vision for ‘delivering public value’

WHITCHURCH-STOUFFVILLE, ON – Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville Council has named Roman Martiuk the new Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) of the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville.

Mr. Martiuk was appointed to the new role at a Council meeting on Tuesday night. He has been appointed CAO Designate effective immediately and will assume full duties as Chief Administrative Officer on August 14, 2017.

“This is an important leadership role within the municipality and we are delighted to have attracted broad interest from top candidates across the country,” says Whitchurch-Stouffville Mayor Justin Altmann. “Mr. Martiuk was selected for his deep municipal sector experience and his vision for delivering public value in the provision of municipal services and we look forward to him leading our organization.”

Mr. Martiuk is an experienced municipal manager having held a number of City Manager and Chief Administrative Officer positions. Most recently he served as Chief Executive Officer for the Walkerton Clean Water Centre.

Earlier in his career he held positions in Finance, Human Resources, Public Works, and Information Technology. Mr. Martiuk holds Bachelor of Applied Science and Master of Business Administration degrees and is also a licenced Professional Engineer, Certified Management Accountant and Chartered Professional Accountant.

“I am excited about joining the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville,” Mr. Martiuk said. “I look forward to working closely with the Mayor, Council and staff to tackle the Town’s challenges and create an environment where staff can grow, excel and produce superior results for the taxpayer.”

Council would like to thank the Region of York during this process for providing the search committee with space and support in order to create a professional interview environment.

Councillor Ken Ferdinands and Councillor Iain Lovatt participated in the search process with support from Organization Consulting Ltd of Toronto.
